

Magic Words

Learning Objectives

After completing this chapter, students will be able to:

- learn the magic words
- say please, thank you and sorry
- be polite to all
- be loved by all

Let us Begin

Think about these questions:

- ★ What is a magic word?
- ★ What do you say when someone helps you?
- ★ How do polite words make us feel?

Talk about your answers with your friends.

Introduction

Please, thank you and sorry are magic words. We say please to ask for help. We say thank you when someone helps us. We say sorry when we do wrong. Polite words make all hearts happy.

Understanding the Lesson

- Please, thank you and sorry are magic words.
- We say please to ask for help.
- We say thank you for any help.
- We say sorry when we do wrong.
- Polite children are loved by all.

Real-Life Example

Ria says, “Please pass the book,” to her brother. He gives it. She says, “Thank you.” He smiles back.

Story

The Magic Words

Anu wanted a pencil from her friend. She said, “Please give me a pencil.” Her friend gladly gave her one. Anu said, “Thank you,” with a smile. Her friend felt very happy that day. Anu’s magic words made many friends.

Moral

Magic words make everyone happy.

Key Values

- Please
- Thank you
- Sorry
- Polite

Exercise

A. Knowledge Check (Understanding Basic Concepts)

Fill in the blanks using the given words.

polite, sorry, please, thank you

1. We say _____ to ask for help.
2. We say _____ for any help we get.
3. We say _____ when we are wrong.
4. A _____ child is loved by all.

Tick (✓) the correct answer.

1. We use magic words to show good _____. (anger / manners)
2. We say _____ before asking for something. (please / sorry)
3. If we hurt someone by mistake, we say _____. (welcome / sorry)
4. Magic words make people feel _____. (happy / angry)

Write True or False.

1. We should be rude. (_____)
2. Please is a magic word. (_____)
3. We say thank you after help. (_____)
4. Polite words make people happy. (_____)

Match the columns.

Column A

1. Please
2. Thank you
3. Sorry
4. Polite

Column B

- a. after a mistake
- b. using good words
- c. ask kindly
- d. after help

B. Understanding and Application

Answer the following questions:

1. Name three magic words.

2. When do we say please?

3. When do we say thank you?

4. Why is Anu loved?

C. Real-Life Situations (Competency-Based Questions)

Read the situations and answer the questions.

Situation-1

You want to borrow your friend's ruler.

1. Which magic word will you use?

2. Why should you use it?

Situation-2

You push your friend by mistake.

1. What will you say?

2. How will your friend feel?

D. Critical Thinking

Think carefully and answer:

1. Why are magic words called magic?

2. Whom do you thank every day?

3. How do you feel when others say thank you to you?

E. Value-Based Activity (Experiential Learning)

Draw three magic words on a card and decorate them. Stick the card in your room.

F. Group Discussion (Discuss in groups)

Tell your friend: When did you last say please, thank you and sorry?

Write two examples from your discussion:

1. _____
2. _____

G. Project Work (Experiential Learning – NEP Requirement)

Make a small flag for each magic word and show it to your family.

H. Self-Assessment (Reflection – NEP Core Component)

Tick (✓) the statements that are true for you.

1. I say please.
2. I say thank you.
3. I say sorry.
4. I am polite.

☐
☐
☐
☐

Use magic words every day. Polite children make everyone happy.